Sponsor's Message

This edition of the TERMINAL is the result of the combined efforts of more than two hundred students. The producing staff disclaim all responsibility for the many omissions and "blanks". Every effort has been made to cover all aspects of life at VISCOUNT BENNETT. To the many hard-working and conscientious contributors we say "Thank-you."

J.M. Thomas.

Miss Thomas and I would like to say thank you to the more than two hundred students who assisted in the assembling of this issue of the Terminal. Having a cross-section of the population of our school working with us, has made this Yearbook the success it is. We are also grateful to the members of the teaching staff and to the office staff for their valued help.

Chris Marriott.

SPECIAL

the PRINCIPAL

To the Graduating Class and to Viscount Bennett School, this year has been one of continued growth and accomplishment. The class of '59 pioneered the way and set our first standards in scholastic, civic and athletic achievement. The class of '60 has continued the good work and added much of its own. In almost every field, academic endeavor, sports, social activities and citizenship, the students of this class have contributed to raise the school standards ever higher.

In so doing the class and the members individually will have experienced the satisfaction which comes with real achievement through effort. They will have gained the feeling of inner power and the enthusiasm for the next step ahead. They will understand the words of Thomas Huxley - "The rung of a ladder was never meant to rest upon, but only to hold a man's foot long enough to enable him to put the other somewhat higher."

- Mr. Bryan

MESSAGES

When this school year ends another group of young people will move on from the more or less sheltered life of the schoolroom to the semi-protected life of a University student or the rugged life of an adult wage-earner. In either case graduation marks for them an important step in life. This year we have heard much of dishonesty in high places, of race riots, of uneasy international relations. Certainly the world into which you now go is not the happy place your elders would choose for you. Some of you may give up easily in a spirit of "What's the use? If people are like that there is not much we can do about it". But more of you, I venture to say, in the best tradition of young people everywhere, will hold fast to your ideals and will set about immediately doing your share to make life an adventure in good relations. To you we who are left in the school say, "Thank you for being with us", and "God be with you".

- Miss Jagoe

the VICE PRINCIPAL

VALEDICTORY

VALEDICTORY SPEECHES

The years spent in high school can be looked upon as a pathway leading from childhood through adolescence to young adulthood. Now we have reached the end of this path, perhaps more quickly than we first realized, and we see before us a great challenge - a challenge to use the knowledge and skills gained in our school days to make a better, more tolerant, more peaceful world for those who follow.

But before accepting this challenge, we linger and look back down the pathway, remembering with joy mingled now with melancholy sadness, the memorable events at Viscount Bennett. Who will ever forget the first report card, the lift you got when your name appeared on the honor roll, the first dance, the thrill of the football and basketball games and the precious excitement that followed a win, the teachers who seemed to flood us endlessly with homework but for whom we all held secret or openly, admiration, gratitude, and respect. These are things that will live in the memory of each and every one of the graduates long after his high school years are completed.

Now in our last days at Viscount Bennett we think fondly of the past and with these memories, walk boldly forward to meet the future.

- Abie Okazakie

People often remark that valedictory speeches are so cliché-ridden and so much alike. In preparing to deliver this one, I think I have found the reason. How many ways are there to review our years in high school, to thank our teachers and advisors, to say goodbye?

We cannot yet "point with pride" to famous graduates of Viscount, since we are only the second graduating class and our predecessors have not yet had time to make their marks. But we can take great pride in our school itself - in the beautiful building, the superior staff, the "Viscount Bennett Plan" which has helped us all and pointed the way for other schools to follow - our active and original Home and School Association, which has given us so much encouragement and leadership.

When we first came to Viscount, many of us felt it would be difficult to be in a school with little past and no traditions. We had not realized then what satisfaction we would find in establishing our own and in seeing the innovations planned by our principal and teachers.

We leave behind us our favourite teachers and many of our friends, but we take with us, indelibly written on our minds and personalities all they have taught us through their advice and examples, beyond what was on the curriculum. For this especially we are truly grateful.

Miss BOYD.

Although frequently surveyed by the rest of the school as material for the mental institution, the members of class 10-37 went on their merry, mad way to a successful year. On a typical morning (especially Monday morning) the first decipherable sound above the chaos would be Miss Boyd's dulcet tones "Murray and Tom ! Please sit down !" Not long following, a petition is usually presented by Don and Morris (who have a passion for petitions) pleading with Miss Boyd to let them stand up and talk. Meanwhile Gwen and Beverley are carrying on a quiet conversation at the back while Christine, Cheryl, Bev and Linda are talking about Sal Mineo. Arne and Brian are arguing about the atmosphere of the Moon. Rising out of the bedlam comes Helgards unmistakable giggle poking fun at Carol's new cheer. Jan and Susan, two of our more saner classmates, try to look disapprovingly and listen to Bill and Audrey's council report but Anita's "Where did Reka go?" and Valerie's "did you know Hatshepsut was the first woman to be a Pharaoh?" usually drowns them out. The finer points of trumpet playing are being discussed by Bob and Gerald, Helen stares aimlessly into space while Peter tells fish stories to no one in particular. Judy's convulsive laughter exceeds all noise while her meandering eyes focus on Katheline trying to terrify poor Kirk in the corner. Above Reka's "I did not know we had any homework" and Carol's shrieks at Don, Laurie scribbling wild poetry that no one understands and Pat's oral rehearsing of a current play, sits William with his beloved book on atomic energy, cool, calm, and collected, quietly planning to blow up something or someone (preferably one of his more rambunctious classmates).

In spite of all this and thanks to our often surprisingly unruffled teacher, we weathered the terrors of first year high school; none the worse for wear. It was a very good year.

PAT CAMPBELL
MORRIS LOVELACE

Miss Perkins.

This is yakety Haskovitch - alias Sharon - reporting the 10-41 edition of the classwide crime news.

A mysterious murder was committed last night. Sneaky Allan Sales, daredevil detective has been chosen to investigate the clues and find the murderer.

The present suspects are:

Linda Sloan seen roaring away from the scene of the crime on the back of an unlighted scooter.

Tom Messenger prominent chemist who experimented with nitro-glycerin throughout the night.

Elaine Zimmerli was seen sulking down a dark street on the trail of a 6'4" male.

Bill Bennetts the strong silent butler who carried a grudge.

Tom Robinson car fiend, who was found tampering under the victim's car.

Joan Haden - possible accomplice, who drowned out the victim's cries with her trumpet.

Barry Horth - recently defeated by the victim in a very important archery game

Lyn Meyer - American counterspy, seen leaving the victim's house carrying the bloody remains of her jazz collection.

Eddie Schey - painter of the controversial portrait of the victim.

Don Hamilton - arch enemy, who recently added a man eating plant to his tropical plant collection.

People questioned: "Where were you at the time of the crime?"

Peggy Smith "either in the gym or carrying things off the football field

John Siegrist "groping for food in the refrigerator, and man, it was cold."

Verlie Thomas "being bawled out as usual, for neglecting my homework"

John Park "locating the intestinal tube of a poor helpless frog"

Bonnie Southam "in the closet, gobbling down a few extra hamburgers"

Bob Wallace "in the basement, constructing a model jet"

Diane Stackhouse "in my bedroom, trying to sew, write letters and listen to pop music all at the same time."

Lonnie Tate "I was crying the blues, on my snazzy trombone"

Pat Knechtel "on the phone, spreading the latest gossip to Ellie"

Bob Greenwood "having fun, at my girlfriend's house."

Public Opinions in the Murder Situation.

Corinne Hingston "it must have been done by a coy boy.

Lynda Hodges "Oh dahling; you really want my opinion! How thrilling, but I must rush off; busy you know"

Sylvia Fyfe "How icky! It just had no sport to it at all"

Wendy Argent "I don't know enough facts to develop a theory yet.

Doug Spensley "nice going .. too bad it wasn't my brother!"

Diana Nelson "What was that you said?" (yawn) Snore zzzzzzzz

Verna Schatz "I guess if he got it he must have asked for it. Pass the candy (chomp, Ann Loewen "An opinion like that requires careful study. Oh, no, not study! (chomp.)

Marsha Saunders "Isn't that nice, but a bit juvenile don't you think?"

John James "How about that, we should try something like that ourselves!"

"This is your yakety-yakety newsreporter signing off for to-day. For further development tune in later! Wait, FLASH announcement!"

"Lyn Meyer, substituting for your beloved past reporter, as Ferocious Fred Enders, has committed his second murder, by the vulgar method of slowly dropping acid down the victim's throat."

BIOGRAPHIES

Miss COONFER

MAY ARNOLD's interest lies in Rick Nelson,
Food, Rock 'n' Roll and any man's son.

A private secretary is Sheila Baerwald's aim,
And dancing and boys are just a game.

Bev Belway from Cranbrook came,
The mention of Brian just drives her insane.

The goon, Sharon Berg, is in this room,
And she hopes she'll be a secretary soon.

Della Blatz, a pretty, fair young maid,
Intends to be a nurse's aid.

While doing her homework there's rust on her halo,
But when baton is concerned it's sweet Donna Calow.

"Maggie" Cameron, whose eyes are like stars
Enjoys dancing, parties and boys with cars.

Since homework and math are Rosalie's pet peeves
In the business world will she succeed?

Pat Dorgan's interest is in a Thunderbird car,
To learn shorthand and marry a millionaire her ambitions are.

A medical stenographer she intends to be,
In swimming and diving Judy Dowson you'll see.

Ann Drysdale's pet peeves are A.L., Chester and B.U.
and her certain special guy we'd like to view.

Crafts and piano playing take up Grace Ellingson's spare time and her ambition as bookkeeper is mighty fine.

Theresa Frontin from King Edward came,
When she's happy or angry she's just the same.

Hilbert, alias Donna Hill, as a private secretary she'll fill the bill.

Marsha Ipena likes reading and skating,
A top notch secretary she'll soon be rating.

School in general Anna Jensen detests,
To be a bookkeeper is her one request.

Known as "the naughty lady of Kerrydale Road"
Miss Gail Laidlow certainly has the mode.

In school Sandy Landage is never really quiet
And when out with boys or at a party she's quiet a riot !

A fan of western music Judy Lathwell is,
When it comes to dancing she's really a whizz !

"Loveable Lynn" Maskell is really alive,
Her main interest is "The Big C" at 12-25.

To be a farmer or a stenographer Sandra Merithew's ambitions are,
Soon she'll be driving a Cadillac car.

Carolyn Milner, one of JOB's Daughters,
Intends to get through school on what is taught her.

A technical secretary Vivian Misura intends to be,
And a good one she'll make, just wait and see.

Horses and boys are Diane Murdoch's best bet
And the position of secretary she's out to get.

Sally O'Rourke is quite the kid,
When it comes to Bob she flips her lid.

D for Dorothy and D for dates
To be a good secretary is what she states.

A stenographer is what she would like to be
Where there are boys and fun Ellen Sherry you'll see.

Gwen Smith also known as "Shrimp"
In her hobby of painting she does not skimp.

Although boys and sports are her big pitch,
Dianne Sumner's ambition is to be rich.

Good afternoon ladies and gentlemen and welcome to the first big game of this new season. As we look down unto the field we see that famous couch "End Run Thomas checking on her line up. Over at the gate is the team's general manager Money McCasland whose eye, as usual, is on the gate receipts. At the moment the cheerleaders lead by that famous Texan Karen "The Voice" Le Fever and featuring Barefoot Barbara Sande and Rousing Raskin are giving the boys a cheer.

The team is on the field and once again your Pippety Poppety Popcorn radio broadcast is on the air. As usually the president of our company, that world famous popcorn muncher and peanut crusher Ron Silent Schey, would like to welcome you. Your play by play announcer for this afternoon's game will be that well known broadcaster Laringitus Stone.

Now to the team. As usual Terence "The Terror" Bastin is in at quarter with Surfire Corbett as centre. The guard positions are filled with electrifying Haites and Shoulders Orman while our ends are flying Payne and crazy legs Kolber, a former member of the La Lumiere line. Another La Lumiere man Rapid Ronnie Dorwart plays in the halfback slot. Dave Tompkins along with Henry Doe provides us with a scientific approach to the flankers spot while his partner Moose Munro adds the feminine touch.

The kickoffs and punts will be handled by the darling of the gridiron, Norm The Form Chisholm while all punt returns will be cared for by the Blonde Bomber Eleanor D'Amico and her hard driving compatriot Raging Rae Garden.

We are hoping to catch another glimpse of the second string quarterback Airways Snider. Seems like somebody is always giving George the air.

This year the position of head waterboy is filled by Drip Bolton. Terry first achieved fame because of the big splash he made when he tripped over a bench at last year's final.

The official bench warmer Betty "Babe" McNamee is particularly suited for her vocation since her hobby is collecting dolls.

Our medical corps is headed by that famous noseologist Doctor Grant van Hill. Doctor van Hill is assisted by those famous maids of mercy Lenore Kirkpatrick, Joan Reid and Elaine Snider.

O'Canada and God Save the Queen will be played by that famous football organist of the Western Conference "Fingers" Law.

Coming across the field is last year's winner of the Schenley Award Tall Paul Tremlett. Paul was the first player to receive the award for his drinking.

The booing is for the little men in stripes. The head referee is Myrna Campbell. Her blue eyes make it difficult for her to catch on but once it hits her Wow ! Sleeping Steve Mullen is backing her up as head linesman. Steve doesn't see much but then he never makes a wrong call.

Hold it ! Good news has reached us that the Japanese answer to the China Clipper Mike Tamagi will play today. That's great news for coach Thomas. Our official statistician for the year is Pat Wales. Pat may not be good at math, but just ask any fabric and dress student what she can do with figures !

A word of thanks must go out to Ron Ellis for the brilliant job he did in designing this electrical bench. Just plug it in and it heats up. All and all the invention is pretty shocking. And thanks also to Robert Rowley for changing our 100 W. bulb for a 200 W. bulb. It certainly threw some light on the subject !

I now turn you over to Judy for our play by play of the game.

CLASS BIOGRAPHY 11-27

Mr. Ferguson

It is the year 1970. Mr. Ferguson's class 11-27, of the year 1959-1960, are reuniting for a space excursion to the moon. Our transportation, two exquisitely furnished space ships designed by engineers Arnold Brogden and Philip Hartwell, has been supplied by their owners Playboy Leslie Rosenau and wealthy English author Dennis Walker. Our able pilot Leonard Battrum will be aided by two lovely hostesses Helen Colgan and Sandy Mac Kinlay. The ships'nurse is June Whitbread.

Aaron Litchinsky, who is now a skilled pharmacist, has developed a super dehydrated food pill. Since his pills come in varied colors and flavors, Sharon Ganden and Shari Sanders have selected a delicious chicken dinner with all the trimmings in the form of brown pills for dark meat and white pills for light meat. These refreshments are completed with the addition of a delicious cherry angel food cake, which is, of course, in the form of a large pink pill on a delicate crystal cake platter.

Entertainment will be supplied by the talented musician Harry Woodhouse and his moondrops. The members of this excellent band are: Fred Clark on the accordion, Wendy Hillard on the flute-a-phone, Marg Edmondson on the piano, Norm Holdershaw on the drums, Doug Boulton on the guitar. Accompanying the moondrops will be charming singer Marg Wallace.

Upon arriving at our destination, everyone will go to a beautiful ultra-modern teahouse designed and built by architect David Bennetts. This teahouse has been affectionately named moonshine by Walter Mosimann, who has wired it with atomic light. After settling down in their exquisite private rooms Terry Falkenberg and Dyne Folwell are planning to rush off to the Marl Imbrium Golf course for nine holes of rocky golf while Doug Grant, star quarterback, Paul Jonassen, halfback, John James, guard and Jim Knowler, tackle will hurry to get up a good game of Spaceman's Football.

Sharpshooter Marcheta Brown is going to shoot at distant jagged peaks on the moon's surface in order to see how much faster a bullet travels and how loudly her rifle cracks.

Donna Chisholm and Joanne Stitt, horse breeders in Kentucky, had planned to race their two favorite yearlings, but had to postpone it until they were home again because there wasn't enough room for the horses on the ship.

Star swimmers Gordon Henry and Merritt Mabey would have visited the old swimming hole but were disappointed when they heard that there is no water on the moon.

After considerable red tape, John Charette and Glyn Murphy, both of the R.C.A.F. and Bill Empey of the R.C.N. have received leave so that they can join our party.

Richard Krown has promised to assemble his collapsible midget race car so that he can take all the girls on sightseeing trips around the moon.

We are sure that all the earthlings of class 11-27 will enjoy this future space trip which we have just described. But until then, we shall be content to learn all we can under the excellent guidance of our homeroom teacher, Mr. Ferguson.

- Doug Campbell Shop rates high with Doug, and he plans to be an aeronautical engineer when finished school. His main interests are hunting and cars.
- John Carstairs John's ambition is to travel around the world, but not as a member of the army. His interests include photography and reading and his favorite subject is music.
- Harry Cartwright College is his ambition and the "blue bomb" his present interest. He thinks his only fault is giving people rides home after school.
- Manfred Epp All sports are included in Manfred's hobbies, as well as travelling and hunting. He plans to be a business administrator in future.
- Bob Fea Bobby's ambition is to be an electrical engineer, and his spare time activities include radio electronics and building models.
- Maryanne Fishbourne - She plans to be a nurse when she is through school - her main complaint in life. Maryanne devotes her spare time to Hi-C.
- Pat Froelich Pat spends most of her spare time with Dale, and her favorite subject is definitely not Science 10. To be a secretary is her ambition.
- Don Gilbert Raising pigeons is Don's main interest, along with enthusiasm for all sports. Banker is his future occupation and he would like to do quite a lot of travelling as well.

- Philip Goldfeldt. Looking after his greenhouse takes up most of Phil's extra time, and he plans to be a horticulturist when school is behind him. He is interested in most sports.
- John Holmes This boy will be satisfied if he can pass Grade 12. His favorite subject is Math, and his hobbies include playing cards.
- Audrey Kerr Cold weather is not very popular with Audrey. Her favorite subject is science and her favorite pastime reading. She plans to be a physiotherapist.
- Ralph Kunkel While Ralph enjoys math, he does not feel the same about French. His hobbies include sports & model airplanes and he is headed for a drafting career.
- Madeline Lewis Madeline is one of Viscount's cheerleaders, and is house statistician for Saturn. Bowling takes up any spare time she might have, and she plans to be an air stewardess.
- Marj MacDonald A future nurse, Marj finds enjoyment in outside of school activities. Homework keeps her busy and she is hoping to get through grade 12 in one year.
- Judy Macleod Another of V.B.'s cheerleaders who is also on the Student's Council. Pediatric nursing is her aim, and she does a lot of bowling in after-school hours.
- Fred McClusky To get through school is Fred's aim, and he feels he has too much homework. His favorite subject is Phys. Ed. and his hobbies are all sports and cadets.

- Dick Seaman Dick's interests are hunting and fishing, and he plans to go into forestry when through school. His hobby: collecting tropical fish.
- Pat Somers University is Pat's aim after Grade 12, which she hopes to finish in one year. She is active in sports activities around Viscount.
- Donna Thompson Donna will never be through school, as she plans on teaching for her career. Her main interest is sewing.
- Billy Valentine "The Boy from the South" plans on going back to attend Tulan University. His favorite subject is drafting and he is interested in sports. Being under 21 is his main complaint about life.
- Sharon Wilson Sharon has not decided what to do in future, but she is interested in sociology. Bowling, skiing and golfing are her main interests.

11-39 "The Claim to Fame" class.

- Cyril Sayles - Future dentist from Drumheller. An ancestor of his was a dinosaur dentist.
- Agneta Svalander - Likes and rides horses like a Swedish girl should. Claims she will run Annie Oakley, Dale Evans and Madame Du Barry (?) out of business.
- Pat Gray - Someday her hometown Vauxhall will be able to say a social sorker comes from there. There are no black sheep in her family.
- Doug Thackray - A car expert, will become a mechanical engineer. He has a new idea: an external combustion engine. (?)
- Claire Fraser - Piano playing Student's Council Representative. Claims her 5 great and an uncle invented the river named after her. She'll find out when she gets to university.
- Leslie "Curlybirds" Bird - is going to be an army officer who "can't have everything". Don't laugh; his crazy philosophies inspired the T.V. program that sounds like his name.
- Bob Dunbar - is in the Booster Club and wants to be an M.D. He says he has only one problem: What's an M.D.?
- Joanne Thompson - a "tres chic" water skier that will become a lab technician. Is working on a chemical compound that is liquid like water and solid like snow for ski enthusiasts
- Brian Plain - if a medical career be his aim he'll need more technical language than "Scubadoo". The medicine he is working on will have that name.
- Yvonne Gilliam comes from THE state. Her intelligence gives us something to brag about. Presently designing the atomic powered lariat.
- Sherryn Dersch - the car she drives adapts her to the "bumpy weather" she'll get when she is an airline stewardess. Has designed an airplane that gets flat wings (for revenge).
- Gary Nyrose - any mechanical problems will be solved by the future engineer. Has discovered how to draw the perfect circle. "That's life"
- Allen Irwin - Might be his red hair but his only ambition is to "LIVE". Has a new way to last a long time as a detective: retire.
- Diane Gibson - has possibilities as a dancing airline hostess since she likes them both. Presently trying to sell juke-boxes to TCA.
- John Roberts - a marching musician who doesn't know what he is going to be. Thinks there might be a market for jet-propelled roller skates for marching bands.
- Ken Arkell - at present editor of the Viscount Version. No career set but has an eye on science. Is considering producing an electronic editor.
- Kathy Barlow - an Edmontonian who loves drive-ins and cooking. Has plans for movie a la carte and cinema a la mode.
- Bob Jolley - At present he works part time at Dominion. Thinks if he keeps on saying "Chew that wad again, man" Wrigley's will go out of business.
- Lynn Zelmer - a whizz at chess that plans to become a Forester. Just think: a whole forest cut up into chess pieces !
- Valerie Watts - a curler who arrived fairly late this year. She is reputed to be good at French.

- Carole Jamieson - Can swim like a fish but can't play chess very well. Her under water chess game is in beginning stages.
- Myrna Hunt - a lover of all kinds of music and teacher of accordion may be the first one-woman band.
- Alexis Ho Lem - her interest in accordion won't hamper her desire to become a university graduate. Has considered a combination accordion-briefcase.
- Pat Morgan - will be a civil servant with a "first come first served" philosophy. Claims it has one flaw: What if nobody comes?
- Gordon Babuik - has interests varied from football to the school choir; claims his idea of a singing football is a first.
- Marty Westmacott - He is from Winnipeg and a news reporter to be. Says that he will encourage the newsmen to go on strike so he'll have a scoop.
- Brian Volstad - is probably the only one that works at Safeways that doesn't like drive-ins. Hopes that since we're saying this about him that he'll get a raise.
- Don Watson - The man from Vancouver who says: "To be or not to be" We're not sure but he claims he invented the transparent fog.
- Carol Price - has no ambition (vocational) but likes badminton and dancing. She could be a dancing-badminton player or vice-versa.
- Gerhard Patterson - The Austrian scientific and active Student's Council Representative keeps saying "Blast you". He says it will be possible to blast people someday.
- Jack Steen - the executive type President of 11-39 and Vice-President of Hi-Y. Problem: every time he sees a desk he puts his feet on it.
- Brian Westlund - We hope this biography of our class isn't criminal because Brian is a future lawyer and he could throw the book at us.

BIOGRAPHIES

Class 11-42

This is the year 1967 and we are going to take Mr. Ballard to visit all his former 11-42 students.

AND YOU ARE THERE !

1. DETROIT - The great car enthusiast Jim Adams is busy designing a combination Cadillac-Volkswagon.
2. PARIS - Mademoiselle Carol Anst is designing the first "Mink lined Space suit".
3. REGINA - Guitar strumming Mountie Gary Braun is bringing in his first victim.
4. SAHARA - Brian "Bob Commings" Chalmers is hot rodding it across the desert with car and girl.
5. CALGARY - Civil engineer Fred Christopher is straightening up affairs. How's your hobbie of "looking at girls" coming ?
6. NEW-YORK- To the office of Ken Coull, lawyer. Still running from rich girls, Ken ?
7. LONDON - David Cuthbert, President of the Technical Engineers Society is addressing a luncheon.
8. VIENNA - To the residents of famed Commercial Artist Peter Eastwood. Pete, do you still hate nosey yearbook representatives ?
9. SAN FRAN- Here we find the aircraft maintenance man John Farrer. Still CISCO. think there aren't enough holidays ?
10. CALGARY - In the General Hospital we find Bob Hammond, Lab Technician at work.
11. WASHING- To the White House where Lynne Herrington is a secretary. TON. Sold any secrets lately, Lynne ?
12. HOLLYWOOD. Bill Holstine, guitarist, has own T.V. show "Wonderin' Willie Plays Back".
13. YUKON - Terry Irvine, forestry engineer, is doctoring trees. You have finally escaped your pet peeve M.E.
14. PONOKA - Archie Lyons is resting here after the strain of making his first million. Still hate coldslaw Arch ?
15. CALGARY - Still in typing ten is Heather McDougall. Heather, do you still want to be a secretary ?

16. CALGARY Nurse Jane McFarlane is wheeling patients around the General Hospital. Found any eligible doctors?

17. GRAND COULLE DAM Ian McKenzie, electrician is taking care of the dam. How is fishing, Ian?

18. YUKON Geologist Ray Ming is searching for black gold. Ray always had to be different.

19. HUSTON Petroleum Engineer Gerry Mitchell is still trying for his first "gusher".

20. HAWAII Stewardess, Rita Morris is suntanning between flights. We bet Rita doesn't spend her time reading.

21. AUSTIN Diane Monroe is a secretary for an oil company. Caught any oil executives lately?

22. TORONTO Henry Mushet, our pharmacist, is inventing illnesses. More sickness, more pills, more money.

23. CAPE CANAVERAL Larry Noble is designing moon rockets. There is no hope for us.

24. WESTERN HIGH SCHOOL (V.B. gave up) We find Allan Reid still trying to get through high school

25. CHICAGO To the office of the detective "Trev" Mike Hammer" Royston. Still hot roddin' Trev?

26. CALGARY Carol Sprecher, oil millionairess, is trying to decide what wear to breakfast.

27. ISLAND Free from the fairer sex and A.L. is George Warren as he basks in the sun.

28. CALGARY - There we find Anne Whiteside on her ranch raising race horses

29. EDMONTON Here is Doug Wiggins our chef. He chose this profession after his hobby of "going to the snack bar".

Cheerleaders

This year, a large number of students mastered their academic difficulties with the help of the twenty-five members of the Academic Leaders Corps. The first year of this project turned out to be highly successful.

Any student who wished extra help in any subject contacted the club's sponsor, Mr. Gish. He then assigned a tutor to help that student until his difficulty was cleared up.

President, John Watts, Vice-President Carolyn Cleetin, Secretary Tam Hamilton, and Mr. Gish drew up "A Code to Tutor By", a list of suggestions to help the tutors help the students. The club members have given freely of their time and talent to help others and, although they receive little recognition, the satisfaction of seeing a student raise his marks is enough.

Pat Wales 11-26

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB. -

The twelve member Photography Club took pictures of all major school events, and developed and printed them in readiness for the Terminal and school posters. During February, Mr. E.J. Wales, father of one of the members, gave two explanatory talks on Color Photography. He also demonstrated the development of color films at his home.

President Gary Wilson, Secretary Sharon Haskovitch, and Vice-President Blake Tuba made up the executive of this hard-working club. Miss Thomas was the club's sponsor.

VISCOUNT BENNETT Hi-Y CLUB

The Viscount Bennett Hi-Y Club is affiliated with the YMCA and is sponsored in the school by Mrs. Joudrie and Mr. Jones. The executive for the 1959-1960 term included Howard Fraser, President; Joanne Bartlett, Vice-President; Janice Cameron, Secretary; Joan Wray, Treasurer; and Chuck Ross, Chaplain.

The Club's main project of the year was the Dress up Day which was held with the purpose of raising money to support Janice Cameron in the inter-YMCA club's Queen Contest. As a result of this and the penny drive, Viscount Bennett was able to donate $120.00, which was added to the funds donated by the other Hi-Y clubs in Calgary. Other interesting service projects undertaken by the Club were operating a gas station for the day, selling boxes of nuts for the YMCA and a candy sale within the school, just to mention a few.

The club was very fortunate this year in having Paul Tremlett chosen as one of the 30 boys from Canada who will attend the World Youth Conference in Holland this August. Viscount Bennett should be proud to have Paul chosen, and next year he'll certainly have many experiences to tell his fellow students about his travels throughout Europe.

To finalize the year's activities, about ten of the club members went on an outing to Banff which proved to be very entertaining.

SENIOR HIGH MAJORETTES

This term the club has consisted of twelve students at one time but now has only 7. Dale Connery, Captain; Lynn Howland, Brenda Pitt, Carole Osborne, Secretary, Verna Shatz; Gillian McKenzie, Treasurer; Suzan Jones. - Performances were at High School Football games, a Stampede Football game, basketball games and the Music Festival at Lethbridge. New uniforms were purchased and new hats are expected in time for the Stampede Parade. Miss Prete sponsored the group.

Dale Connery.

The 1959-60 Senior High Library Club, under the skillful guidance of Mr. Dausley, felt that the year ran quite smoothly. We all know how necessary a library is to every school and it is equally necessary that the club be well organized. The executive for the year consisted of PRESIDENT: Marilyn Mann; VICE-PRESIDENT: Pat Johnson and SECRETARY: Jurene Ballard. Regular meetings were held on the first and third Tuesdays of every month. At these meetings, Mr. Causley enlightened the members on things that every librarian must know to carry out their work successfully. One project for the year was the display of book jackets mounted on cardboard to show those interested what new books have been added. This year saw the library open during the noon hour enabling students to get reference and free reading books without the afterschool rush. Special thanks go to Mr. Causley, Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Marshall and to all the club members for their help and fine co-operation throughout the year.

CHORAL MUSIC AND MISS PERKINS

In the School there were three choirs - two in the Junior High and one in the Senior High, all lead by Miss Perkins. Each choir consisted of thirty-five students. The Senior High Choir was made up of both boys and girls, singing in four parts. This group appeared on television with the band at the Christmas assembly and Grade Twelve Graduation. In February, they sang at the Jubilee Auditorium in a Concert with the Calgary Junior Philharmonic. From this choir, a vocal ensemble of fifteen was formed, and this group entered in the Festival.

One Junior High Choir met once a week, sang in unison and entered the Folk-Song class in the Festival. The other choir, which met twice a week, did two and three-part singing, and entered in the Junior High Choir Class.

BAND MUSIC AND MR. DOW

In the Junior High, there were two bands - one made up of forty-six Grade Eight and Nine students, and the other, twenty students from Grade seven. The band appeared in a Music Demonstration, at several school programs and assemblies, and at the Track Meet. They took a trip to Lacombe in March to appear in a Festival there, and they also entered the Music Festival in Calgary. The Senior High Band, consisting of forty-eight students, played at school programs including the Christmas Assembly, and were seen on television with the Senior High Choir at Christmas. They appeared at one Calgary Football game and at one High School game; they had planned a trip to Lethbridge to play at a football game there, but it was snowed out. In April, the band played at Glendale school and also entered the Festival. They went to Lethbridge in May, did a concert and played in the Marching Band Competition.

Seventeen students comprise the Senior High Dance Band, which played at school dances during the year and appeared on television in April. Also in April, they played at a Crescent Heights dance. The band's main duty was to play at the three school forms, Christmas, Easter and Graduation.

All of these bands were conducted by Mr. Dow.

This year's work in the Math Club, under the sponsorship of Miss Jagoe, included reports on such interesting mathematical subjects as moduli numbers, polar coordinates, hexafleragons, complex numbers, and the game of hex. Several meetings were devoted to explanations of various phases of mathematics. By posting math problems on the bulletin board the club created school-wide participation.

One of the most interesting projects of the year was the adoption of a Math Club symbol. The symbol chosen was the Pythagorean Theorem with the Greek letters "Sigma Delta Mu" inscribed within the proof to represent Sodalitas Disciplorum Mathematicae (Society of Students of Mathematics). As this interesting club increases in membership, activities and projects, the symbol will increase in meaning. The year's activities were led by the executive: Jim Jamison, President; Morris Bleviss, Vice-President; Betsy Fleming, Secretary.

CERCLE FRANCAIS

Les membres du Cercle Français se sont réunis cette année le lundi de 11 heures et demie à une heure moins le quart.

Aux réunions on a chanté, on a joué à des jeux divers, on a cultivé l'art de la conversation. Des vues de la France, prises par Melle Hawley, un film sur la France, tourné par le Père Boisvert et des films de Mr Wilcox ont été des attractions spéciales.

Aux trois réunions du Grand Cercle de Calgary, notre Cercle a présenté une chanson, une saynète et un jeu.

Le 11 mai, 21 étudiants de français et 4 invités de langue française ont diné et causé ensemble chez Melle Hawley.

Au mois de février, par la vente de bonbons organisée par Agnita Svalander, on a récolté la somme de 115 dollars qu'on a remise au Grand Cercle de Calgary. Cette année le Grand Cercle pourra envoyer à l'University Laval 6 boursiers y compris Leslie MacDowell et Joan Wray.

Présidente	Gayle Houlden
Vice-Président	John Watts
Trésorière	Marilyn Peters
Secrétaire	Joanne Bartlett.

Un Grand "Merci" aux "Quarante Mères Françaises !"

Au nom de tous les élèves de français de notre école, le Cercle tient à remercier les "Quarante Mères Françaises" qui travaillent au refectoire. Le profit de leur travail a déjà acheté des fournitures supplémentaires (disques, un tourne-disque, livres, etc.) et a aidé deux élèves à aller étudier le français à Banff et à Quebec.

SENIOR HIGH TUMBLING CLUB

The members were: Willf Wenzel - Buddy Malette
Stan Black - Merrit Malrey
Jim Kirk - Terry Bastin

Meetings were held every Thursday at 3.40 p.m. to practise and perfect difficult tricks which require good timing and co-ordination.

JIM KIRK

THE MARCHING BAND

Part of the Band Program includes a Marching Band composed of members of the Junior and Senior Bands on a voluntary basis. The routines require quite a bit of practice which is usually done at noon. Also a colorful and necessary part of a marching band is the Majorette section.

Last fall we participated in the official opening of the Senior High School Football season at Mewata Stadium and later in the season provided half-time entertainment at one of the Stampede Football games.

This year on May 28 our Marching Band will be taking part in a Marching Band competition in Lethbridge. That day we'll be playing morning, afternoon and evening and it should be a valuable experience for all of us.

Also, if possible, we may take part in the Stampede Parade in July.

JOAN HADEN.

STUDENTS COUNCIL

The meetings this year were held on alternate Mondays after school under the supervision of Miss Jagoe. The executives this year were: Wilfred Wenzel, President; Judy Stone, Treasurer; Kathy Osborne, Secretary and Abie Okazaki, vice-president.

This year marks the completion of the Constitution by Abie Okazaki and representatives of the Houses. Two other main projects were carried on; the purchase of student directories and sponsoring of the Council Dance "Swing a la Spring". The dance featured a queen contest and was enjoyed by all in attendance.

Towards the end of the year the Council purchased several trophies to be awarded to the Houses at the yearly awards Day.

FOOTBALL

This was the year that Bennett was to win the Calgary High School silverware. What happened? What happened. This was the question on everyone's lips.

Many factors contributed to the collapse of the Vikings' hopes. No one yet knows why Viscount did not make a certain trip to Edmonton. Maybe a newspaper article caused a few players to become over-confident; maybe our team was not good enough. Oh well, there's always another year.

St Mary's was defeated by Viscount in the League opener, but after this Western was the only team to be held by Viscount's charges. When Western and Viscount fought to a draw it was a great moral victory for everyone connected with the team. Crescent, Queen Elizabeth and Central gave the purple and white their three defeats.

Although Viscount did not win the Championship, three players were selected for the All-Star team. Glen Hartley, Jack Truran and Chuck Ross received enough votes for this honor.

Chuck Ross gained further honors when he won the Harry Hood Memorial Trophy. This award is given to the player adjudged to be the League's outstanding ball player. Congratulations Chuck on your fine showing.

Mr. Lalumiere's Juniors did not fare much better. They won one game and lost five.

Graduation will take many of this year's players; but Bennett will be back to fight in next year's gridiron wars.

RON HOLLAND

(12-24)

SENIOR HIGH BOYS' BASKETBALL

Basketball is a game for tall men and if Viscount has more of the stature of this reporter our teams would be no better placed. This year's record was similar to that of last year: -

4 wins and 6 losses - this despite the fact that ours was the smallest team in the league.

Bill McCabe, Tom McKenzie and Gerry Smith were the big guns for the Vikings. Bill and Tom both finished among the top scorers in the league. Our four wins came from Queen Elizabeth, St Mary's and Crescent.

With the addition of a new school, the junior team played twelve games this year. At the end Ron Stewart led the Vikings and the entire Junior league in scoring. Ron, however, had lots of help from Terry Bastin and Alisdair Love.

It is to be hoped that the "WAIT TILL NEXT YEAR" slogan disappears from all interscholastic games in the very near future.

RON HOLLAND.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The junior girls' team, coached by Miss Currie, showed an excellent display of basketball skill throughout the entire season. After many hardfought battles, this group reached the semi-finals which they won and then they succeeded in bringing home the Junior Girls' Basketball Trophy.

Congratulations to team members Peggy Smith, Shirley Zmurchyk, Anita Engelman, Diana Nelson, Ann Roewen, Loraine Alade, Diane McTavish, Shirley Cayley, Arlene Dunn, Elli Pfafflin, Kathy Peel, Christine Pifer and Elaine Zimerli.

Also coached by Miss Currie was the Senior Girls' team, but for awhile it seemed that these hard fighting girls were doomed to occupy the cellar spot for the league. However they moved up the ladder little by little, and they managed a fourth place in city standing.

Team members were Betsy Fleming, Linda Sheppard, Sharon Smith, Ellen Armstrong, Mavis Monro, Windy Stone, Karen La Fever, Marg Wood, Audrey Stark.

HOUSELEAGUE BASKETBALL

Cheers, whistles and screams signified that Houseleague Basketball, a competition amongst the girls of the different houses was next on the sports' agenda. The house teams all tried hard but in the end the coveted trophy went to Pluto's A team.

VOLLEYBALL

TRACK & FIELD

TRACK MEET. - We girls put forth a tremendous showing at the track meet and we are proud of the results. A special cheer for Peggy Smith, an outstanding V.B. athlete. Thirty-nine points earned the Bennett team the Girls' Aggregate Trophy and since twenty-five of these were tallied by the junior members, the Junior Girls' Trophy also comes to our school.

Here are the results that put Bennett on top:

TRACK MEET (BOYS)

Four individual and three team awards were garnered from the 45th. annual high school track meet. Glen Hartley, Jim Ostler, Ron Stewart and Peggy Smith won the individual awards in each of their respective divisions.. The Junior boys won the Paschendale Shield. The girls aggregate went to Bennett as did the junior girls aggregate. The Henry Birks Shield and the Dr. A.C. Singleton Trophy were won by the two girls teams. Bennett obtained four of five individual awards.

Viscount Bennett athletes made four of the seven new records. Jim Ostler set records in the high jump and the hop, step and jump. Ron Stewart established a new junior class broad jump record of 20'9". Glen Hartley broke his hop, step and jump of a year ago, jumping 42'6 $\frac{1}{2}$ ".

All in all Viscount Bennett made a commendable a powerful showing in this year's track meet.

Y ell for Jupiter.

Congratulations to Laurence King who ran from "Vancouver to Halifax" helping to bring Jupiter a second and to everyone else who "ran that lap".

Pert Tam Hamilton added the feminine touch to our house as Queen of Jupiter. House participation was resplendent in the House Rally as a girls' choir performed. Their performance was coupled with boisterous participation from Jupiter's "male choir".

Competition was at a height when all interested students enjoyed the athletic opportunities available throughout the year - basketball, volleyball and broomball.

It appears that "Jupiterites" can "out lick" their competitors when "l'argent" enters the picture - as displayed in the penny drive. The line was the longest by far.

POEM by David Tompkins (11-26)

No title, written in a mood of despondency, very late at night when tired.

Darkness descends
A quiet bliss
Displaces the harsh realities of the day
Men turn to one another
for understanding and sympathy, comfort
But the scum of the earth rise with eagerness
To meet the night.
Parasites and leeches,
Blood-suckers,
Their name is legion.
They leave their squalid haunts and strike out with slinking footsteps
and guilty eyes
to rob on lonely streets,
to kill in shaded doorways,
to rape in obscure alleys
To exploit the darkness which hides them and the society which harbours them.
Here and there a light goes out;
Soft caresses
Ecstatic delight erase problems in one affectionate spasm.
Outside
the same perverted stream of humanity flows on.
Day breaks.

A FEW by David Tompkins (11-26)

The people were pushing grasping rushing grabbing fighting clawing falling climbing.

I stopped and asked him

Why ?

He drew back

Startled

Bewildered

Utterly confounded.

He had never before thought about it.

I left him there,

Still shaking his head

As if he tried to see

Through the fog of habit

Which clouded his mind.

Others supplied an answer:

"Security"

"Wife and children"

"Leisure"

"Success"

"Money"

"Pleasure"

But I noticed amid this chaos

A few who calmly wound their way through the crowd,

Relaxed and content,

Their faces devoid of anxiety.

To my question

They answered all

"To help others"

I pondered over this and returned to my home

refreshed.

ESSAY

I'M CANADIAN

by Philip Eadie (12-31)

Canada and some Canadians have worked hard for sovereignty and unity for their country. Their success in the former has been noted and will receive its loudest ovation in seven years when Confederation has its centennial birthday. But the latter has failed miserably and is only now beginning to show any signs of noticeable birth at all. The purpose of this essay is to explain why Canadian unity is a feature of our future and not of our past.

One of the main blocks to Canadian nationalism is the language barrier between French and English speaking Canada. This has led to the near segregation of the hyphenated race-- The French-Canadian. These people, instead of contributing their culture to that of Canada have retired to themselves, building an invisible wall in the form of the Union Nationale Government. Instead of integrating themselves with other Canadians they have remained in Quebec making Canada's largest province a stronghold against her.

The English speaking section of Canada, however, is not as strongly a united body as the French speaking sector. The Manitoba-Ontario border is the thin line drawn between two rival camps. West of it, as reads the popular Eastern belief, civilization ends and barbarianism begins. East of it, say Westerners, friendship terminates and the formality of seventeenth century England takes its place. These two false beliefs, then, further divide the country.

Unity has often developed from some force which draws people together. Canadians have never experienced that force, as Canadians. That is why people (nationalized Canadians) reply that they are descendants of their fore-fathers from Hungary, France, Britain or Israel when asked their nationality. Some of the blame must be attached to the physical and racial boundaries of our wide and expansive land for this. Much more can be accredited to the United States which draws Canadian nationalism from her own shores to the highly developed unity present in every phase of the American way of life. No definite Canadian culture can be said to have grown up since 1867. Much Canadian talent has been driven south of the border to secure employment and/or recognition. Canada has made no major contributions to the world except as a participant in fields begun by other world powers.

Now, almost one hundred years after Confederation a new awakening appears to be in progress. Nationalistic demands for a flag, for an anthem and for a distinctively Canadian nationality are being expressed in nearly every centre across the Dominion.

The French government is lessening its severe segregation policies and emerging into the country as one of the ten provinces for the first time. Contrary to the poem, East and West are meeting through the diligent supervision of expanding industries and better communication services. The scope for Canadian entertainers and technicians is broadening with the advent of more discriminating tastes and more funds in all fields.

Possibly most important the phrase "I'm Canadian" is being heard more often and with greater pride of tone at each repetition. I feel sure that before Canada reaches her second centennial nationalism will be a major asset our country has to boast of (and offer to new-comers). Of course my opinion is biased, I'm Canadian.

THE ART OF EATING A TOMATO

by Susan Kent
9-1

When devouring a tomato, several things must be taken into consideration, the main two being you and the tomato. This red "love apple" has a knack of leaking from the strangest places, so, in the interest of all dry cleaners, I suggest you equip yourself at the start with a full dress suit of armour. The inexperienced novice will assume that the next step is to bite the vegetable, however we experts realize that this would be disastrous. First you must punch, with the left ring finger, a small hole that will allow all excess juice to dribble out. Next the skin must be moved back slightly with the teeth in order to construct a hole large enough through which to extract all those sly slippery seeds. After completing this operation you will see before you a shrivelled, dry, unappetizing hunk of vegetable flesh which is, frankly, unedible. This should bring you to the conclusion that should have been clear to you at the start - tomatoes are for the birds!

JUNIOR HIGH

SUMMER

Here comes summer in her bright coloured gown
Dancing along on the thistle down,
Accompanied by fairies playing the hairbells
Making their music stretch out to the dells;
They play all day,
And they dance all night,
To welcome Miss Summer so gay and bright.

But after two months of songs and laughter,
They must get to work or be sorry after;
For the snow and the cold are on their way
To get rid of Miss Summer bright and gay;
She'll just have to go and come back next year,
And we'll all be waiting with hearts of good cheer.

SHORT STORY - Dorothy Watts (9-4)

THE BLIZZARD

The crisp snowflakes were hurled down everywhere over the white world. The brooding wind was biting and bitter and it carried flocks of frost with it. Threatening and glowering the wind tore and ripped at the broad white expanse. A small, poorly-clad figure plodded along the icy drifts clutching another decidedly smaller figure - a small speck moving on the flat immense prairie. The larger figure had a look of determination in her eye and an air of persistence in her step. She stumbled a good many times but each time sprang up with greater resilience than before.

Lucy knew that she had to get Jimmy, her small brother, to a doctor because pneumonia was a killer has had been proved by the death of her mother and father the night before. Jimmy's brown eyes, deep with suffering were pleading and they cut like a knife at her heart. The night was coming on shadowy and dark. A small farmhouse could be seen ahead and Lucy half-walked, half-ran towards it. A bright light shone out from each window in the house. Lucy's fingers, numb with cold, were aching and she was longing to lay down her small burden. The doctor's house must be about four miles from here.

She approached the farmhouse and knocked on the door. Again and again she knocked but no response. Finally the door opened and Lucy could see that the occupants were obviously having a very gay time. A stout mean-looking woman had come to the door. Lucy started explaining her plight but the door had been slammed in her face. Lucy rested on the doorstep for a while. Jimmy, she knew, was fairly warm and it wasn't too much farther she thought. The tears were stinging in her eyes and blinded her but she stumbled ahead. She walked it seemed for hours, her brain overcome by a drowsiness. Sleep overcame her and she lay down in a snowbank where she was found the next day by her rescuers - dead.

One hundred years away was the doctor's bungalow. A heavy fog had descended and visibility was almost nil. Lucy had died seemingly without cause but she gave her life....

DIXIE BIRNEY, one of our future nurses, is an ardent sports fan. Among other interests, she enjoys music, dancing, and of course - boys.

2
Lorna Bland, hopes to become a Social Worker or an Air Line Stewardess. This good natured girl enjoys music, curling & skating.

3
Doug Bourne, has great intentions of passing English this year. After leaving school, he plans on attending college.

4
Eldon Chapman, a Student Council Rep., was a key figure in our basketball team. His interests in aeronautical engineering should promote his career: possibly in the Air Force.

5
Greg Clarke has the R.C.A.F. as his goal via the R.O.T.P. He is an active member of St. John's Ambulance Ass., Scouts, and the Chess Club.

6
Dale Connery, who dislikes doing nothing, has high hopes of becoming an Air Stewardess or working in the Recreational field. As captain of the majorettes, sponsor of the Jr. High Girls Tumbling Club, and contestant in House League Sports, she manages to keep fairly busy.

7
Don Dale, a clarinet player from the Senior band, plans to become an engineer? Psychologist? or a misunderstood beatnik? His only desire is that someone would import some warm Ontario Weather.

8
Ted Dale, a sports car enthusiast, in an active participant in inter-school basketball. University Business Administration is his ultimate goal in the future.

9
Dennis Domonne, an ardent Photography and Car fan, is undecided concerning his future plans. Honors Mathematics seems to be his future venture.

10
Don Elliot, a veterinary surgeon, who dislikes high society is right at home with his many interests which include pets and marine life. In addition he manages to find time for skin diving.

11
Peter Froebel, is undecided regarding his future career, but is interested in electronics.

12
Arnold Froebel, is naturally undecided about his future - he being a twin of Peter. (He does miss Edmonton a little.)

13
Jack Gauthier, a born clown, dislikes school in general.

14
Norman Grimes, Viscount's Chessmaster, also has high hopes of becoming a "vet." The many activities on his agenda include coin collecting and badminton.

David Haden, a track and football star, finds his leisure moments tied up in H.Y. Career plans are indefinite, but may include Accounting or Phys. Ed.

LeRoi Herod, plans to attend university this fall, but his courses are indefinite. This Vancouverite also enjoys skindiving.

Denny Holditch, whose main activity is school work, spends leisure moments at art or tinkering with cars. His chosen field is Architectural Tech.

Danny Holden, who enjoys cars and tropical fish, plans to enter the field of agriculture after completing school.

Colin McRea, an ardent sports and outdoor enthusiast, enjoys guns and hunting. He dislikes money grabbers and plans to become a geologist.

Jim McDonald, plans to get to the root of things, by becoming a dentist. This ardent out-of-doors fan enjoys all outside activities such as hunting and beach parties.

beach-parties.

Jim Mather, who likes figures, plans to become a Chartered Accountant. The pet-peeve of this frat-secretary is combination locks when the combination has been forgotten.

William Opatril, also desires to pass English this year.

Carole Pamplin, one of our noisey cheerleaders, is certain to go far as a teacher. Other interests include Jazz, dancing and sports.

Eugene Ratz, an active member of the Photo and I.S.C.F. clubs, serves on the TERMINAL staff. Teaching piano, and youth work through his church keep him quite busy.

Deane Ross, has already embarked on his career to become a petroleum engineer. Along with hunting, this champion football player enjoys most outdoor activities.

John Rollingson, who enjoys mathematics, is rather undecided concerning his future career, although he enjoys swimming and skin diving.

Margret Simpson, quiet and refined, is now making preparations to receive her R.N.. Her many fields of endeavour include shellcraft, sewing, sports and all out-of-door activities.

Robert Stuart, a member of the inter-school basketball team and a yearbook rep., passes most of his spare moments studying. He plans to become a "scholar of the Roads".

Margret Wood, another Council Rep. dislikes teachers who make jokes (?) and expect you to laugh at them. This future nurse, who enjoys music, keeps in condition by participating in interschool sports and dancing.

Mr. Richards.

1. Brent Bisson - interest and ability in mathematics and careful observation of figures will make Brent a successful architect after University.
2. Pat Clarke - Although Pat has little hope for the present generation of males, she hopes her future French Students will be models of good behaviour.
3. Jon Constable - excels in any and all types of sports: and in evading the girls. He's practicing to be a bachelor.
4. Ron Cummings - is the long haired type and a collector of sports magazines. Ron hopes to become a Chartered Accountant and perhaps obtain a B. Com.
5. Diane Cundy - Di has the greatest of all ambitions - to finish Grade XII in one year, with time out for ???, of course.
6. Joanne Dunaway - After school, Joanne plans a trip to California before embarking on a business career. At present, she enjoys French and "Fantastic Records".
7. Philip Eadie - hopes to travel the entire world and find his name attached to the best seller, when he returns to pay his bills.
8. Gayle Houlden - giggling Gayle is a whiz in French and may make this or Home Economics her career.
9. Jim Jamison - A second Robert Browning, he plans to set aside his volumes of verse long enough to become a Chemical Engineer. Right Jim?
10. Trevor Johnson - a lover of the outdoors, Trev's alternate interest is in Math, which we feel will help him more in his course at the Tech.
11. Audrey Konschuk - Audrey hopes for the introduction of cars and the elimination of lectures in the Nursing Course which she plans to enter this fall.
12. Ann Kyles - This versatile young miss enjoys school and sports in which she excels, but simply abhors T.V. commercials.
13. Gary Lee - Wee Lee is an important player on V.B.'s basketball team. He expects to become an engineer in the not-too-distant future.
14. Leslie MacDowell - slow, but sure, Leslie hates to be anywhere early. She'll have to quicken her pace in her university career which will enable her to teach Latin and French.
15. Donna MacFarland - connoisseur of languages, none of which she uses in cheerleading, Donna will attend university next year.
16. Chris Marriot - Chris, a future nurse, has already developed a dislike for onions, iodine and other objectionable chemical preparations. English makes up for this somewhat.

17. Bill Marshall - Hater of teachers and lover of gum, Bill will have to reverse the situation when he enters university this fall.
18. Bruce McCulloch - irrelevant to his course in engineering, Bruce takes time out for skin diving in search of a mermaid. He also is a lover of mathematics.
19. Gretchen Meade - Although Gretchen would prefer to be a member of the wild and wooly west, the present demand for intelligence like hers. requires that she attends college.
20. Kay Nagai - Kay is a Latin scholar, whose one aim is to stand on her top-toes and look after some handsome male patients.
21. Abie Okazaki - will relax after his strenuous high school career on a long cruise around the world. He hopes to reside in Brazil and make mint from his law practice.
22. Kathy Osbourne - V.B.'s secretary, who claims she can read and write, Kathy plans to use these qualifications in swaying the menfolk at university.
23. Lorne Scott - another globe-trotter, Lorne will give Abie a run-for-his-money in the legal profession.
24. Linda Sheppard - is a sports enthusiast who is interested in fashions and recreational teaching. She may further these interests by becoming a teacher after university.
25. Wendy Stone - a difficult one to distinguish from day to day as she persists in changing her hair-shades. She will join Joanne in California before she settles down and becomes a nurse.
26. Anne Smith - As she is especially talented in English and finds few things annoying, Anne will make an excellent English Teacher someday.
27. Donna Tildesley - Chemistry and French make the school week boring for Donna and Physics will prepare her for her course in Occupational Therapy.
28. Gary Wilson - our Science and Photo Club President will see the world and become a chemist before settling down in his little house in the suburbs.

1. Bob MacNeill likes all sports
And in the Airforce he'll see all ports.
 2. David Grindell goes for commercial art
But golf and he will never part.
 3. Hockey's the favourite of Jim Hall
Later at ranching he'll have a ball.
 4. Lawrence King finds sports to his liking
But as a Geologist he'll find himself hiking.
 5. Barbara Faiers goal is the Medical field
But then comes sports to which she yields.
 6. When Stewardess Loree has the skies as her thrall
Then chasing boys will be no trouble at all.
 7. Fishing and Hunting are the favourites of Ken Burns
But he does not know in what direction he yearns.
 8. The Music Industry will get our John
When collecting records he's "real" gone.
 9. Sandra wants her diploma from High School
And collecting stamps she finds "real" cool.
 10. As a draftsman Chuck Elliott will be getting fees
But he'll spend them on girls in his weekend spree.
 11. From continent to continent will go Ray Spears
When after school he becomes an Engineer.
 12. Darryl Keenan loves to go swimming
And with Nursing knowledge she'll be brimming.
 13. To work on cars favours Peter Bell
And in Conservation he'll be paid well.
 14. In the field of Forestry you'll find Gary Hankinson
And the playing of Hockey he always finds fun.
 15. At the sport of hockey Jack's always trying
And as a hobby he likes skin diving.
 16. To be in Commerce expects Alan Nixon
And when it comes to cars he can really fix-em.
 17. Mel Brehm expects to attend University
And his sports may become a controversy.
 18. Barbara Campbell is her name
And taking attendance is her game.
 19. Natural Science Drawing is where he ponders
And the Halls of Learning is where Gerald Martyn wanders.
 20. Donna White likes being a majorette
In Interior Decoration is where you'll find her I bet.
- =====

15. Betty Lou Barr - Betty originally came to our fair province from dusty Saskatchewan. She devotes most of her time to studies but someday hopes to become a model.
3. Darlene Berrington - is one of the original Viscount Bennett students. Darlene is very interested in music and dancing. Someday she'll take up the duties of secretary.

BIOGRAPHIES

SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL

- Sue Alexander - This attractive, petite tennis-badminton fiend, finds her home in Calgary, previously having lived in Toronto. After receiving her nursing degree, she plans to take advantage of it and travel in Europe.
- Ellen Armstrong - Basketball, badminton, or track ! You name it - and Ellen played it! The Secretary of the Booster Club and 12-24 Council Representative, she plans to take education at the University of Alberta.
- Kinga Biro - Fencer Kinga, the suave sophisticate planned for a University Education in Vienna where she hopes to fill her spare (?) time with modern art and designing.
- George Brandt - This gay boy's activities included school choir, and playing the clarinet and guitar. A so-called "unskilled" essay writer would rather play football or do trigonometry than compose half a dozen sentences. Previously attended Strathmore and Forest Lawn schools.
- Sally Burkell - Happy-go-lucky Sally comes to us from Halifax. This quiet miss had a great liking for sports cars and often wondered about being a mechanic.
- Joe Burritt - With us for but a short time, Joe left Bennett in the fall for the working world after having spent five years at this, his favorite school.
- Jan Craig - This former Illinois student planned to become a nurse, and had special interests in cars and target practice. She enjoyed driving and dislikes people who worried.
- Margaret Craik - Marg was a newcomer to Viscount in 1960, having come from Edmonton. She hoped to become a nursing student at the Royal Alex Hospital; her special interests were getting married, meeting boys, hunting and doing math; her pet peeve was her cough.
- Ron Fisk - This outdoorsman liked fishing, golfing, playing pool, and hunting (for money and women). He liked Social Studies particularly - and appreciated most lunch and dinner.
- Betsy Fleming - Betts, the all-star, all sport, headed for the University of Washington to major in mathematics, had that La Lumiere "accent" and a '60 Ford "Galaxy".
- Joelene Gorrell - This Jupiter V.P., our surgical nurse-to-be, loved dancing, piano playing and swimming. A Continental traveller at heart, she settled for day-dreaming due to insufficient leisure to make long trips personally.
- Arnold Gorveatt - Arnold previously attended school in Turner Valley. He liked hunting (ducks, that is), travelling, geology and "Sweet Marie". His activities included walking to school and ushering at assemblies. Pet peeve: unsmiling faces.
- Ron Holland - Viscount's capable football manager for the '59 season was an interested and active writer for school publications. We felt sure he would succeed in Commerce when he attended University.
- Marg Kroll - Marg, the girl with the glasses around her neck, and a future educator, was ardently interested in "man" - J.M. She loved playing badminton, hitch-hiking and wearing blue jeans.
- Sandy MacKinnon - Active in track and working towards being a nurse, Sandy enjoyed "free Friday afternoons" ! A certain band that played ev-er-y weekend was her pet peeve.
- Bill McCabe - Bill was one of Bennett's most active students. He participated in the band, played football and basketball. A native American, he planned to study commerce at the University of Colorado.

Kathy McIntyre - Swimming was Kathy's favorite pastime. A member of the A.Y.P.A., Kathy planned a career in psychiatric nursing, a career at which we feel she will be most successful.

Georgina McKay - Petite Georgina worked as a cashier at Loblaw's during her Grade Twelve year. When she was not thinking of her future as a physiotherapist, she was busy with her music.

John McKay - This former Edmontonian was 12-24's Council representative and a Booster Club member. John's favorite subject was trigonometry and he planned to study Commerce at the University of Alberta.

Judy McKenzie - This attractive blond, who hoped to travel about Europe as a registered nurse, spent her spare time during her Grade Twelve year in beautifying others in the "Bay" Cosmetics Department.

Bob Moffat - One of the motorcycle boys, active in English rugby, Bob hoped to take medicine at University. His favorite subject was English.

Ric Moodie - This cycle enthusiast worked his way to excellent grades in his final year at Viscount. His special interest is in oceanography which he plans to study at the U.B.C.

Peggy O'Neil - This girl who enjoyed water-skiing hailed from Saskatoon. When she left Viscount, she hoped to enter University for further study. On weekends she worked at "Eaton's"

Allan Ricketts - Allan's only love in Grade Twelve was cars. To finance this passion he joined the R.C.A.F. auxiliary. A man from many a ville, his favorite subject was trigonometry.

Anne Rutherford - This pretty brown-eyed brunette was both a Hi-C and a C.G.I.T. member. Although a homework-hater, Anne planned to be an elementary school teacher. Her favorite pastime: reading.

Graham Sattin - This top chemistry student planned to study science or chemical engineering at the U. of A. A member of the Academic Leaders' Corps and the Math Club, Graham was well liked by both teachers and students.

Bill Scott - A top honor student, Bill was also a Math Club and Academic Leaders' Corps member. He planned to attend Royal Roads in preparation for a career as an aeronautical engineer in the R.C.A.F.

Sharon Smith - Room President, Co-captain of the Senior Basketball team, Sharon was active in the Hi-Y, the Booster Club, the House of Pluto as statistician and the Badminton Club.

Bill Spring - Bill planned to make his future in the R.C.M.P. and left school early in May to start his training. A part-time student, he worked at Simpson-Sears in his off-hours. His "pet-peeve"? Teachers who pounded desks.

Audrey Stark - An active participant in sports and extracurricular activities, Audrey was the secretary of 12-24. An Honor Roll student, Audrey planned to attend the University of Alberta for teacher training.

Bob Thompson - With special interests in painting and mechanics, Bob, a former British Columbian, planned for an advanced degree in Commercial Art.

John Watts - President of the I.S.C.F., John spent much of his time in the development of this organization. With chemistry his favorite subject, John hoped to be a chemical engineer.

THIS WAS A COMMAND PERFORMANCE

VISCOUNT BENNETT

Girls from the Home Economics classes modelled their own clever creations in a Fashion Parade. The girls were charming and sophisticated in their selection of playclothes, casual outfits and special dresses.

The Boys displayed projects, completed during the course of the year in the Workshops and Art Department. The display of electronic skill was truly impressive - even a radio controlled aircraft and High Fidelity sets. The girls of the Home Furnishing class showed highly artistic talent.

The ladies of the Home and School Association prepared delectable teas, served by equally delectable gentlemen. The Home-Baking tables were a sight for any sore eyes of any gourmet.

Proceeds of this magnificent affair went to the fund for awards and for an extension to the Library.

Good luck to a sweet kid
